TRAINED TO PERFECTION

Are you aiming higher with your production efficiency and safety at work? The Junttan Network provides training services to help both the operators and administrators to get the best out of your equipment. With competent people using the machines, the fleet performs better and lasts longer with high total profitability.

WHY CHOOSE JUNTAN TRAININGS?

- Don't compromise on safety: equipment damage resulting from operating mistakes is expensive, and you cannot even put a price on serious personal injuries
- Reduce expensive downtime and increase the utilisation rate of your equipment by making sure it is used and serviced like it was designed to be
- Trained staff is a sign to your customers that the equipment is operated and maintained in a professional manner

TRAINING EXAMPLES

- Commissioning Training for new equipment
- Operator Training for new operators
- Preventive Maintenance Training for operators and service technicians
- Diagnostics Training for service technicians
- Junttan Life Online and PMO training
- Work method optimisation on site
